

STRATEGIC PERSPECTIVES IN NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT

www.exed.hbs.edu/spnm

Offered by the HBS Social Enterprise Initiative

Exploring crucial concepts and skills for nonprofit leadership, you'll prepare to strengthen fiscal management and accountability while leading the evolution needed to create a more responsive, successful, and sustainable organization. This program will help you:

- Focus your mission and create service offerings that truly address the needs of your target populations
- Develop the core capabilities, external alliances, and operational alignment needed to fulfill your mission and execute your strategy
- Strengthen your financial position and create a more accountable organization
- Implement appropriate and effective performance metrics and systems
- Lead essential change and manage growth
- Expand your personal and professional network

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Through faculty presentations, nonprofit case studies, group exercises, and group discussions, you will acquire the strategic perspectives, leadership skills, and practical tools you need to implement new strategies and drive change across the organization. Topics include:

- Defining your mission and aligning the organization behind it
- Identifying customers and constituencies and understanding customer needs
- Establishing methods of fiscal accountability and assessing financial performance
- Developing appropriate performance measures and management control systems and assessing organizational performance
- Creating strategic collaborations with nonprofit and for-profit organizations
- Recognizing and fostering the characteristics of high-performance organizations
- Creating a successful partnership with the board
- Mobilizing resources for change

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Executive directors and chief executive officers who are responsible for shaping the direction, mission, policies, and major programs for an established, public-serving nonprofit organization—and who have been in their current role for at least one year.

LIVING. LEARNING. THE HBS EXPERIENCE.

Though it comes from within, transformation often requires a catalyst. And for many business leaders, HBS Executive Education has been that catalyst. Here, you're fully immersed in a transformational living-learning experience, networking with executives from around the world, and engaging in programs led by experienced HBS faculty. It's a holistic experience that will enrich your career—and your life.

Value—Many of our alumni and participants call HBS Executive Education a “life-changing experience.” That’s because in addition to building your expertise, you’ll examine where you’ve been—and where you want to take your career and your organization.

Learning experience—From case study discussions and small-group projects to simulations and dynamic lectures, you’ll have ample opportunities to deepen your knowledge, broaden your skill set, and collaborate with your peers.

Living on campus—During lively discussions with your living group, lunchtime conversations at the Chao Center, and evening excursions to Harvard Square, you’ll make new connections and form lasting relationships with your colleagues.

ADMISSIONS

We admit candidates to specific sessions on a rolling, space-available basis, and encourage you to apply as early as possible. Although most programs have no formal educational requirements, admission is a selective process based on your professional achievement and organizational responsibilities.
