PAYMENT, CANCELLATION, AND DEFERRAL POLICY

The program fee covers tuition and program materials. For in-person and blended programs, the fee also includes accommodations and most meals. You will be invoiced upon admission to the program. Payment is due within 30 days, or upon receipt of the invoice if the program start date is fewer than 30 days from the invoice date.

If you need to cancel your participation, you must submit your request in writing at least 30 days prior to the program start date. For those who have paid, cancellation requests meeting the 30-day-notice requirement will result in a refund of the amount paid. Cancellation requests received 14 to 30 days prior to the start of the program are subject to a cancellation fee equal to one-half of the program fee. Cancellation requests received fewer than 14 days prior to the start of the program are subject to a cancellation fee equal to the program fee.

As an alternative to cancellation, participants who have paid the full program fee may request one deferral to a future confirmed program. Deferral requests will be reviewed based on space available and admissions policies. If admitted, participants may be responsible for any difference between the program fee they have already paid and the program fee for the future program.

I have read the payment, cancellation, and deferral policy and agree to the terms stated. (please initial here): _____
